School lands concern of annexation issue before citizen's study group

In spite of a cautionary prologue from Canyon School Board President Tom Keeling, a Committee for Quality Education convened Tuesday night and turned its focus on the controversial topic of school land annexation.

About 60 residents of the local school district broke up into two committees during the evening to study the need for new schools here and avenues for financing new school construction or expansion.

The 30 members of the quality education committee dealt only in preliminaries, but indicated one of their concerns will be the attempts by the Amarillo School District to annex property now lying within the Canyon district.

Charles Purcell, elected vice chairman of the quality education committee, asked Chairman Bill Davis if the committee should ask Supt. Jerry Jacobs to actively seek an opinion which has been pending since January from the Texas Education Commissioner.

But, Committee Member Elton Cox, a local attorney who represented the CISD in a hearing in January before the commissioner, said the superintendent has asked repeatedly for the opinion, which was apparently delayed by the spring legislative session in Austin.

"It's a political thing now," Cox said.

But, Cox was among a majority of the committee members who agreed that the annexation issue is one subject for investigation by the committee.

Other committee members suggested school staff members seek information relating to the detachment and annexation, information such as the number of students who live in Amarillo but voluntarily transfer into the Canyon schools.

The committee will meet again in full at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 26 at the school administration building to establish subcommittees for the study of the need of new schools, the school annexation problem, and other subjects.

For more than two years, the Canyon district has been involved in the annexation-detachment controversy, which arose when the developer of the Glendale subdivision in South Amarillo petitioned to have his 176 acres of development land annexed by the Amarillo district from the Canyon district.

The Randall County Board of School Trustees voted last November to allow the Amarillo district to annex the property and the Canyon board immediately appealed the decision to the education commissioner, who heard the appeal in January.

A Committee for Sound Financing also got down to business Tuesday night.

Dr. Jay Wooten was named chairman of the committee and two subcommittees were established, one to survey the present school financial structure and the other to investigate the possibilities of a bond issue to finance new schools or expansion of old schools.

Mrs. Earl Reynolds will head the subcommittee to study the bond issue possibilities and Joe Gidden will head the subcommittee to study the school's present financial structure.

The whole committee will meet again Aug. 21.

During a session before the committees met, local school officials outlined the duties and functions of each committee.

Keeling outlined the problems currently facing the district in providing adequate space for instructional purposes.

He noted the district has four portable classrooms now on the Gene Howe Elementary School campus, two portable classrooms at Rex Reeves Elementary School, one barracks building at the junior high, and has renovated the old Neblett Hospital building for the district's administrative offices.

"The board of education is interested in a quality education and the best interests of the taxpayers," he said. "Detachment and annexation talk will in no way help our present situation."

Keeling said discussion of annexation of Canyon land is kept alive only by "bankers, developers and contractors who've never mentioned the education of children."

He said the Canyon district "is in deep trouble on all campuses and the sooner we have something to alleviate the situation the better."

Supt. Jacobs said while the annexation issue is a vital problem, the solution of it will not change the need in Canyon for new or expanded schools.

The two committees which met Tuesday were created by the Canyon School Board and members of both committees were selected by the school board members.

School bells to end summer

School bells for the Canyon Independent School District will begin ringing on schedule next Wednesday, August 20, as students and teachers get re-acquainted following the summer vacation.

Registration will be conducted Monday and Tuesday at all schools with new students just beginning schools here in kindergarten and first grade reminded to furnish copies of their birth certificates at registration. Any student unable to register at the scheduled time should make prior arrangements with their school principal before registration time. Early registration for new high school students may be made with the counselor Carroll Killingsworth from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in his office at the high school building.

Teachers for the schools reported for their first school day this week and are involved in workshops, teacher meetings and other in-service sessions prior to the registration and first day of classes. An open house was held from 8-9 a.m. on Tuesday at the new central administration building of the schools located downtown in the former hospital building on 16th Street.

Registration schedule for the kindergarten through sixth grade students at both Rex Reeves Elementary and Gene Howe School in South Amarillo are to be held Monday, August 18. Elementary school children with last names beginning A-K will register from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and students with last names beginning L-Z will register between 1-4 p.m.

Junior High students will register on the following schedule: Seventh grade from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. on August 18 — Eighth grade from 1:00 to 3:30 p.m. on August 18 — and Ninth grade from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. on August 19.

High school registration schedule includes: Seniors from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. on August 18 with the sophomores and junior classes scheduled to register on Tuesday. Juniors register from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. August 19 and Sophomores register from 1-4 p.m. that afternoon, Aug. 19.

All students of the school system should have on record doctor's certification of at least one dosage of DPT and a dosage of polio vaccine since their fourth birthday. All students up to the age of 12 must have evidence of a rebeola immunization and rubella immunization on their health records and students of junior high and high school standing must also have complete health records on file with the schools.

As classes begin August 20 many students and parents will be wondering about the holiday schedule for the 1975-76 school year which begins with a student holiday on Labor Day, Sept. 1.

Other student holidays for the school year will include early dismissal on Tri-State Fair Day in September, with no classes on teacher-in-service day October 13 nor on the Texas State Teachers Association (TSTA) meeting day November 7.

Other student holidays will include early dismissal for Thanksgiving on November 27, and early dismissal for Christmas holidays on Dec. 22 with classes to resume January 2. Teachers have an in-service day Feb. 27 when students will be dismissed from classes.

Spring break for the 1975-76 school year will be March 15-19 with the Easter holiday following on April 16-19. The last day of classes are scheduled for May 28, 1976 with a teacher-in-service day to follow on May 29.

Happy days here again

A weekend of festivities and events begin today for the 1975 edition of the Happy Days Celebration.

Activities get underway tonight with the first of three nights of rodeo events at 8 o'clock at the Happy Rodeo Arena. A western dance with Tiny Lynn's band from Lubbock furnish music at 9 p.m. will follow the rodeo each evening.

Other than bulldogging and dancing, the Happy Days Celebration will center on a variety of events for all ages and interests with the emphasis of the celebration on Saturday, August 16.

Saturday's events kick off at 9:30 a.m. with a parade featuring club and commercial floats as well as area Riding Clubs. The parade will begin at the west end of Main Street and trophies will be awarded in the Riding Clubs division with cash awards of $65, $40 and $25 being given in the civic clubs' float judging. Gary Barrett and Neal McCarley are parade chairmen.

This year's celebration, an annual project of the Happy Jaycees, is being dedicated to the memory of Dick Foster. Mr. Foster was an active Jaycee. He lost his life in an automobile accident on May 29, 1975.

Happy Lions Club helped to promote and arrange for the weekend celebration which is scheduled to include various civic clubs with booths set up at the park on Saturday. Booths will include a homemade ice cream stand sponsored by the Happy High School Future Homemakers of America (FHA) chapter, a dart throw sponsored by Happy CowBelles, a dunking board and fishing pond operated by the Happy Rainbow Girls, and a homemade rootbeer stand operated by a Mormon Church group from Canyon.

Other events for the "big day" Saturday are set to kick off at 10:30 a.m. with bicycle races, and Kids games in the park at 11 a.m. Entry fee for the bike races will be $1.50 with funds being added to the Richard SoRelle Memorial Fund. A tug-of-war is also scheduled for the morning's activities, and the Happy Volunteer Fire Department will be selling tickets on two ten-speed bicycles which will be drawn for about 1 o'clock.

An annual feast of barbecue will be served at Stephenson Park beginning at 12 noon. Beeves for the barbecue were donated by Lone Star Feeders, Park and Whitlow, Hancock and Elliott, James Stockett and James Vick, First State Bank, Cone and Randy Johnson, and George Woods. The barbecue chairman is Jim Whitlow.

Old-Timers will be recognized with awards at 12:30 and will be served at the Old-Timer's Luncheon by the Happy Rainbow Girls. Over 250 invitations have been mailed to the community's old-timers (those 60 and older who have resided in the area for 50 years).

Afternoon activities on Saturday will include judging of the beard contest at 1 p.m., a Horseshoe Pitching contest for singles and doubles entries at 1:30 p.m., and a Square Dance in the street at 2 p.m.

At 2:30 p.m. Lloyd Rahlfs will be in charge of the Historical Dedication of two markers which are being sponsored by the Randall and Swisher County Historical Societies. The two official Texas Historical Markers to be dedicated include a marker designating the site of Old Happy, and another preserving the history of the Harman-Toles elevator which was built in the area in 1926.

A Little Britches Rodeo will be staged in the Happy Rodeo Arena at 3 p.m. with no admission being charged. Entrants in the rodeo may sign-up with chairmen, James Vick and Bill Pearson, earlier in the day.

In conjunction with the Happy Days celebration, Happy Artist Studio will be sponsoring a "flea market" and Art Show in downtown Happy at 102 Main Street. Both will be open throughout the day.

Saturday's line up of activities will close out with the rodeo (8 p.m.) and western dance (9 p.m.) and the final celebration event of the weekend will be an Open Steer Roping sponsored by Happy Jaycees at the Rodeo Arena on Sunday at 1 o'clock.

Spot zoning requests denied three

Long-range effects to Canyon's residential areas from spot zoning figured prominently in recommendations by the city Planning and Zoning Commission this week.

"I feel spot zoning is a bad policy to get started," Commissioner Kenneth Olsen said.

The commission, in a meeting Monday night attended by about 40 persons, opposed requests for three zoning changes. The matter now goes to the City Commission.

The requests came from Kenneth Land, owner of a Canyon fast-food eating establishment, Connally Lockhart, Amarillo attorney, and Harold Root, Canyon contractor.

A majority of the audience appeared in response to the Land request for rezoning a lot on the northwest corner of 4th Avenue and 11th Street from multi-family to commercial to construct a convenience store with self-service gasoline pumps.

The north side of 4th Avenue eastward from 11th Street presently is commercial.

Two petitions — one for and one against the request — were presented the commission but only a couple of persons spoke out in favor of the proposal at the meeting.

Reggie Reeves, attorney representing Land, said a convenience store at the location is not "going to start a downgrade of that part of town. I think it's progressive, something Canyon needs in that part of town."

He added that it would be another retail business in Canyon and would produce added taxes for the city.

Mrs. Robert L. Beltz, who lives across the street from the proposed site at 1010 4th Ave., and Dr. Irby Carruth, who lives one block away at 1100 5th Ave., led the opposition.

Carruth, a West Texas State University regent and former Canyon school superintendent, said the area is a "fine old historic part of the city . . . . one of the finest parts of our city."

He added, "To let a commercial enterprise in that part of town would be catastrophic. We believe it is ill advised."

In opposing spot zoning, Carruth said if the commission approved the request "it would start a down-grading of that part of town."

Mrs. Beltz said, "We are adamantly opposed to it. We don't want any kind of business there. We can't see anything desirable about it."

She said such a store would produce loitering and a "dragstrip situation" on 4th Avenue.

Other opponents expressed concern over increased vehicle traffic, littering, a devaluing of property, possible burglaries and an invasion of privacy.

Commissioner Weyman Brown of 401 12th St. said he would abstain from voting because he had lived in that area 10 years and was selling his house.

The commission voted 5-1 to recommend denial with Cordell Huddleston favoring the request.

Also drawing strong opposition was Root's request to rezone from one-family dwelling to multi-family an area between 18th and 19th streets and Hillcrest and Creekmere, just north of Conner Park.

Root has proposed building two and three bedroom apartments on the presently vacant site.

"There is a definite need for apartments," he told the commission. "I have had response from older people who want to rent."

Root said he was "aiming more at building residences for rent, rather than apartments."

He added that the building would be screened from the private homes across the street.

Speaking in opposition, Ralph Mardis of 1709 Creekmere said an apartment building there "could do nothing but devalue property according to appraisers in Amarillo."

Other opponents cited increased traffic hazard to children using the streets in the area to go to a nearby elementary school, swimming pool, baseball fields and the park.

The commission voted 6-1 to recommend denial with Commissioner M.B. Sims casting the favorable vote.

The commissioners expressed concern over being unable to approve Lockhart's request to rezone a lot on 5th Avenue between 5th and 6th streets. He had asked a commercial designation from one-family dwelling.

Lockhart said a prospective buyer of the property planned to put a mobile home on it.

There was no opposition to the mobile home but only in the commercial designation.

W.V. McAlpin, school administrative assistant, said, "The public schools have no objection except the commercial designation. We think it would be a disadvantage to the schools" to have commercially zoned property near the junior high.

Commission Chairman Clarence Eugene Thompson suggested the commissioners "redraw the (zoning) lines to best serve the needs of the area."

After unanimously denying Lockhart's request, the commission voted to recommend rezoning to multi-family an area between 4th and 6th avenues and from 11th street west to the railroad tracks.

McBride says: Ford heals wounds

As we look into the future, the first essential is to begin healing the wounds of this nation.

Richard Nixon, Aug. 9, 1974

President Gerald Ford, who took office a year ago as President Nixon resigned in the shadow of the Watergate controversy, has been effective in helping to heal the wounds created by the corruption which centered on the White House in 1974, a West Texas State University political scientist believes.

"Taking the whole year into consideration, I think that he's been the real man of the year," Dr. Travis McBride said of Ford. "I think he's a natural for the times."

McBride said Ford has done much to restore faith among the American people in government.

"He has the kind of personality we needed to get us back into a more stable situation, a situation in which the people have a little more confidence in government," he said.

"Ford has never tried to give the American people the impression he's something he isn't. He's displayed a low profile, a degree of honesty, he's the typical American boy grown up and being placed in tremendous responsibility."

McBride feels the attribute which sets Ford apart from some other recent Presidents is his ability to use common sense. For a President who was attacked when first in office for lack of sophistication and brain-power, McBride feels Ford has shown an uncanny ability to apply common sense to problems.

"We don't have a defensive, aggressive President," he said. "We have a person who seems to have excellent control over himself and his personality, who admits he's not the greatest mind that ever lived but can apply common sense. This has given us a feeling of stability, of continuity of the system that I don't think existed last year."

McBride defended Ford's problems with Congress, saying he inherited from the Nixon administration the unsolved problems of inflation and recession.

"The fact is that it's not just Ford who doesn't know exactly what to do (about inflation and recession)," McBride said.

Inflation hits jury system

Inflation has now reached another part of the governmental process — the jury system.

Randall County commissioners this week approved a $1 per day increase in the rate paid jurors sitting in district, county and justice courts and grand juries. The pay rate was increased to $5 and they also tossed in meals when required.

The 1975 Texas Legislature authorized a statewide increase from $4 to $10 per day to $5 to $30.

Mrs. LaQuitta Polvadore, district clerk, recommended $5 for those who report for jury duty and from $8-$12 for those selected to hear cases.

County Judge Woody Pond suggested the $5 rate and added, "I think we ought to feed them. They can't buy very much for $4 or $5."

I never thought we'd see Martha Mitchell outdone so soon but Betty Ford has done it.

What Mrs. Ford had to say about not being surprised if her daughter were to start living with a boy friend might be very true. But it is also very personal and had no place in the public statements of a first lady.

In fact she almost raised the question of whether or not Susan Ford actually IS living with a boy at the present time.

It's about the same thing as a man making a public statement that he wouldn't be surprised to find his wife involved in an adulterous affair.

The fact that the question is even raised is inuendo per se.

show up Monday.

"Practically all the companies have contacted me and they seem satisfied (with the increase)," said Mrs. Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor-collector.

The commissioners set additional tax equalization meetings for 2 p.m. next Monday and Aug. 29.

During a recent meeting the court increased taxes from $1.05 per $100 on 17 per cent valuation to 95 cents per $100 on 25 per cent valuation.

In other action, the court authorized expenditure of $1,-441.62 for purchase of a mower for use of the county road maintenance department from Tri-Plains Machinery, Inc. of Amarillo and approved the request of Mrs. Bruse for four members of her office staff to attend a school on rural appraisal and use value assessment at Texas A&M University Sept. 3-5.

Commissioner Dee Griffin Sr. reported on the county employees' medical insurance program.

"We have a real good policy, good coverage," he said, but added he thought the Republic National Life Insurance Co.'s 50 per cent rate increase was too high.

Griffin said he feels the company was "justified increasing rates 10 to 15 per cent, maybe 20 per cent, but not 50 per cent."

He asked that rates be obtained on $50 to $100 deductible policies for study by the court prior to asking for bids from other companies.

A tank trailer loaded with approximately 5,-000 gallons of liquid fertilizer collapsed Saturday at the intersection of U.S. 60, northbound and U.S. 87. The trailer belongs to The Transport Company of Amarillo. No injuries were reported in the mishap.

Student Employment Available

Junior and senior students enrolling in Canyon High School next week will have the opportunity to sign up for work-study programs through the Vocational Education Department of the school.

According to vocational counselor Jack Hazelwood, several training stations are available in various areas of study.

The department offers a two-year program in Building Trades where students with construction interest actually build a house from the beginning to its completion.

Another such program is Home Economics Cooperative Education. This program provides classroom instruction as well as on-the-job training in areas requiring skills in home economic subjects.

After a successful first year on the CHS campus, Distributive Education will be offered to juniors and seniors during the upcoming school year. The program is designed for those students whose interest lies in the field of marketing and distribution.

Cooperative Agriculture Education is another area of study open to juniors and seniors. Cooperative Agriculture provides the student with on-the-job training and technical instruction in agriculture related fields.

Vocational Office Education is a two-phase cooperative program in which students, as juniors receive technical classroom training in skills needed for office occupations. As seniors, the students receive on-the-job training in approved training stations in the local area.

Industrial Cooperative Training is a new program to be instituted during the 1975-76 school year. ICT is a two-year program of classroom instruction and actual practical experience in the area of health occupations and various skilled trades.

Those students interested in the cooperative training available should contact Jack Hazelwood, vocation counselor at CHS.

Employment Survey Slated

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment and unemployment in this area during mid-August, Percy R. Millard, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Dallas announced today.

In addition to the usual questions on current employment, the August survey will have additional questions about the use of food stamps in 1975.

The survey is conducted monthly by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of about 60,000 households throughout the entire United States. The employment and unemployment statistics which are based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, the June survey indicated that unemployment declined in June, and employment was about unchanged. The unemployment rate dropped 8.6 percent in June from 9.2 percent in May. Total employment remained steady at 84.8 million. Since last September total employment has fallen by nearly 2 million.

Facts supplied by individuals participating in the survey are kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Fire School To Be Here

The second Canyon area fire control school will be conducted Sept. 23-24.

Training in new fire control and fire protection methods will be for members of volunteer, paid and partially paid departments of cities, towns and industries.

Two one-night courses will be conducted by the Texas Firemen's Training School of the Texas Engineering Extension Service, part of the Texas A&M University System.

Chief Henry D. Smith said the training will involve firemen in pit, house and liquified petroleum gas (LPG) fire fighting.

Smith said the courses at the Canyon Fire Department Training Center are designed to help firemen keep abreast new problems in the fire service.

WT To Offer "Fun Course"

"A fun course" to be offered at West Texas State University this fall will be the Bicentennial Lecture Series I," a scatter gun view of some insights and approaches to knowledge and the various disciplines," says WTSU Arts and Sciences Dean Theodore Freidell, course organizer.

"The basic theme for the course is aspects of life in America," Freidell notes. "It is designed to give students a wide-ranging perspective on various disciplines that they normally would not pick up in their education."

The class, offered for one hour credit, is also available for students who wish to audit it for a minimal charge and no credit.

The class will meet each Thursday evening from 7 to 7:50 p.m. in Room 102 of the WTSU Science Center to hear various WTSU professors speak on their disciplines.

Lecture titles include American and English perspectives on the American Revolution, Eighteenth Century Philosophy, Development of Geological and Evolutionary Thought, Versions of the American Dream in Selected American Writings and Political Theory and Representative Government. Other topics are Spanish Colonization of the Southwest, Settlement of the Panhandle, Southwestern Literature, Technology and the Modern World and The New Wars.

Registration for this and other WTSU fall semester classes will be August 29 and 30, according to the prescribed schedule. For more information, contact the registrar at telephone 656-3331.

Graduate Art Exhibit Held

A graduate exhibit and art show by Nikki Jinkins featuring a thesis project was held in Canyon at the Baptist Student Center on Sunday, August 10.

The show included weavings, sculptures, pottery and graphic prints. The thesis itself consisted of a three pieced macrame and ceramic room divider.

Mrs. Jinkins is a candidate for graduation receiving the Master of Arts Degree in art from West Texas State University on August 16. She has accepted a position as art and English instructor with Palo Duro High School in Amarillo. She and her husband, a registered pharmacist, reside at 2522 10th Avenue in Canyon.

American Revolution: Theme Of WT Course

If the Americans had understood England's problems better, and vice versa, maybe the American Revolution wouldn't have happened.

Of course hindsight doesn't help the problem much, but two West Texas State University history professors have taken it upon themselves to explain the viewpoints on either side of the ocean in the WTSU history course "American Revolution Bicentennial: English and American Perspectives."

This fall will be the second time this class is available. It is scheduled for Monday evenings at 7 p.m.

"Our views pretty much coincide," said Dr. Darrell Munsell, who will give the English perspectives while Dr. Charles Townsend will give the American.

"Most Englishman did not recognize the social maturity of the colonies and they did not make the necessary adjustments," he points out. "The English system was undergoing change at this time with many pressures at home, and the establishment was resisting it. They did not want to deal with the colonies.

"We are not going to try to justify one side or the other," he continues, "only explain why the controversy existed and why it led to war. Actually, the revolution in the colonies was effective before the war began."

The two professors will cover the issues within the 20 year period from the Peace of Paris in 1763 after the French and Indian War to the peace of 1783.

Registration for History 39901-1, "The American Revolution Bicentennial: English and American Perspectives," will be August 29 and 30 according to the prescribed schedule in the WTSU Activities Center. It is a three-hour course available for undergraduate and graduate credit, and also audit.

For more information, contact the registrar at telephone 656-3331.

Wheat Insurance Benefits Continue

Randall County wheat producers are eligible for improved "all risk" insurance benefits under the federal crop insurance program for the 1976 crop year, a U.S. Agriculture Department official said.

Criss Holden, field representative from the Amarillo district office, said the $2.50 per bushel guaranteed production value for irrigated wheat insurance was extended another year.

Holden said he will be in Randall County this week to advise wheat producers of the Federal Crop Insurance Corp. program. He can be contacted through the Amarillo office in the Herring Plaza or the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service office here.

FCIC introduced the improved benefit during the current crop year to help the insurance program keep pace with the increase in farm production expenses, Holden said.

"In times of rising farm costs it is often difficult for producers to borrow enough money each year for operating expenses," Holden said. "A Federal Crop Insurance policy provides the additional collateral in many cases to permit adequate crop financing."

Buff Hopefuls Returning

West Texas State University Head Football Coach Gene Mayfield and his staff will welcome over 120 hopefuls back to campus tomorrow as a prelude to the opening of fall practices Monday.

Players will check in Friday, meet the media in the annual Football Press Day Saturday, undergo physical examinations and receive equipment on Sunday, and begin two-a-day workouts on Monday morning.

WTSU returns 37 lettermen from last year's 6-5 team that placed third in the Missouri Valley Conference race. In a recent media poll, the Buffs were picked to finish second behind Tulsa in this year's race.

The Buffaloes open the 1975 season at Wichita State on September 6. The home opener is two weeks later (Sept. 20) against Tulsa in Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

Heading the list of returnees who will check in Friday will be All-Missouri Valley offense tackle Jeff Lloyd and all-MVC defensive tackle Floyd Jones. Lineback Larry Spears, safety Mishael Kelson, and running back-punter John Paul Lee, all of whom earned all-conference mention last year, will also be back.

Under NCAA rules, the Buffs will work through Wednesday without pads, donning full battle gear on Thursday. Two-a-days will end on August 29 as the team settles in intense preparation for the season opener at Wichita.

Granddaughter For George Hands

Mr. and Mrs. George Hand of Canyon announce the birth of a granddaughter, Julie Nicole Caufman, who arrived July 22, weighting 7 pounds, 6 ounces and measuring 19½ inches at birth.

Parents of the infant are Dave and Linda Caufman of Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Hand reported that the mother and baby are both doing fine as she returned from a ten day visit with the Caufmans.

Loan Office Opening Saturday

Ribbon-cutting ceremonies and the grand opening of Imperial Savings Association branch office in Canyon will be conducted throughout the day Saturday, August 16.

Open house will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. with the official ribbon cutting ceremony opening the new facility being conducted at 1 p.m. by Imperial Savings officers and local officials.

Mrs. June Crooks, branch manager of the office in Canyon, will be present to greet guests during the open house and a display of 35 paintings by Ruth Elaine Maples, a recent masters degree graduate of West Texas State University, will be displayed. The paintings will remain up during the following week.

Cadet Scholarships Given

Two WTSU students have been awarded three-year Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) scholarships.

Named as winners of the US Army ROTC scholarships are Ronald R. James and Nelda P. Dorough. Miss Dorough is the first female cadet at WTSU to be awarded an Army ROTC Scholarship.

Awarded on a competitive basis to students enrolled in the senior ROTC program, the scholarships are valued at up to $9000, and pay for tuition, books, and educational fees as well as providing $100 a month for personal expenses.

Cadet James, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.R. James of 3411 Rusk, Amarillo, was active in the Amarillo High School Junior ROTC program. While at WTSU, James has received a varsity letter as a member of the University Rifle Team, and has been the recipient of two $50 Military Science scholarships as well as an Academic Achievement Award.

Dorough, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Aaron G. Dorough of Fairfax, Virginia, was a member of the WTSU Angel Corps Drill Team during her freshman year.

Both cadets will return to WTSU for their sophomore year this fall.

Birth Told

Miss Kimberly Ann Stavenhagen is a new addition to the Bill Stavenhagen family of 112 N. Palo Duro, Amarillo.

The baby girl was born August 8 at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon and weighed 7 pounds, 6½ ounces and measured 20 inches at birth.

The father is a programmer for Pioneer Natural Gas Company and the family includes an older son, Todd, age 3.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. K.M. Windom and Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Stavenhagen, all of Clarendon.

School Fashions Featuring 'Work' Look

By BECKY HALL
County Extension Agent

Work clothes are developing as the major category for the '75 back-to-school period.

Today's young women do not want to be categorized, labeled or cubbyholed and as a result, the many looks of military fatigues, chinese workclothes, and sturdy corduroys in addition to a myriad of denim offerings have met with massive student approval. By wearing butcher's aprons, painter's overalls and mechanic's gassers, empathy with the working classes may be implied.

Embroidery, quilting, contrast facings, lace trims, appliques, zippers, patch and pocket treatment on pants and skirts offer variation on the labor theme and call for coordination with jackets and vests. Dresses also carry the industrial clothes stamp in big dresses, jumpsuits, elongated skirts, tented and bib-topped jumpers.

It's a season of big tops, more skirts, soft swingy fabrics and silhouettes for pre-teens and junior misses in the back-to-school brigade. Add to this, lavish detailing including overstitching and tucking, novel pockets and tabs, buttons, zippers and toggles.

Color standouts of green, rust and berry, range from lush mid-tones to soft leathers with pastel accents in ice blue, lavender and pumpkin. Apply the advantage of wash-ability and the season promises to be one of good looks and easy care.

Sueded fabrics and suede look alikes of polyester and blends come in crushed effects. Corduroys reign in traditional plaids, tattersalls, paisleys or tweeds and newly colored scattered country florals. Knits and wovens, a leading fabrication this fall, take on detailed designs through stitching such as pointelles, cables, and patchwork combinations.

The interest in skirts encompasses divided skirts, wrap-arounds, big skirts that are knee length or longer, bib and suspender skirts. Tops are generally wider and looser.

Mock twin sweater sets and t-shirts with scarves are newsy fashion ideas for fall.

Dresses are more feminine, even in sportswear fabrics, among them are a classic pinafore in a denim look with ruffles.

Jumpers are very much in evidence, often paired with turtleneck tops. Polyester and acrylic blends include a French school girl look and others in wrap-around versions and embroidered styles.

Safari silhouettes stand beside the shirtdress and ruffled jumper as the most important styles for girls 7 to 14. Besides smocks and apron dresses, high waistlines are still the backbone of most 3-6X sales. Some popular 7-14 styles are a pants suit with striped vest and blouse and western denim sets.

Smock and apron dresses bear decorative patterns reminicent of Pennsylvania Dutch influence.

In boy's fashions pre-washed denims, though popular, are not taking the place of indigo or corduroy goods. Novelty tops are the corners for 1975.

Best selling item themes currently include sports, cartoons, florals, westerns and slogans. Some are being shown in olympic game motifs and of course the Bi-centennial looks.

Fashion information for this summary was furnished by Becky Culp and Marlene Odle, Extension Clothing Specialists.

Champion Swim Meet Here

More than 400 of the most outstanding young Texas swimmers will meet August 15-17 at West Texas State University for the Texas Age Group Swimming Championships (TAGS).

The event, sponsored by the West Texas AAU Swim Association and West Texas State University, will be held at the WTSU Activities Center's Olympic-size swimming pool.

The swimmers, representing approximately 55 clubs from throughout Texas will compete in four age groups; ten and under, 11-12, 13 and 14 and 15-18. Preliminaries will begin at 8:30 a.m. for age ten and under and ages 11-12 and at 12:30 p.m. for ages 13 and 14 and ages 15-18. Finals will be at 7 p.m. with the eight fastest swimmers in the preliminary events competing.

To enter this TAGS competition, the swimmers had to achieve the Texas Swim Club qualifying times set up in their categories. Usually the outstanding swimmers in this meet go on to make national qualifying times which will put them in line for pre-Olympic meet competitions.

Medals for first through eighth place will be awarded in individual events and relays. TAGS flags will be given to the top ten teams, and the outstanding boy and girl will be named.

Dr. L.S. Sully of 3708 Farwell, Amarillo, will serve as the meet director. Head referee is Dr. Richard Norton of Lubbock, who is president of the Texas Swim Association.

Museum Course Planned

An inside look at museum operations will be offered again this fall as part of the regular West Texas State University class schedule.

"The course has been designed for people interested in museums as a hobby as well as people who are thinking of making museum work their life," says Dr. James Hanson, director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum and course instructor.

During the course of the semester, the class will spend approximately nine weeks on the philosophy of museums, including lectures on how museums work, what they do for the community, the museum as an indicator of civilization and the museum as a tool to study the improvement or decline over the years, according to Dr. Hanson.

The last nine weeks will be spent studying museum organization, including job availability, museum records and conservation of artifacts.

"Museums: Philosophy and Organization," Arts and Sciences 29903-1, will be offered Tuesday afternoons from 1 to 4 p.m.

Registration for this and other WTSU classes will be August 29 and 30, according to the prescribed schedule. For more information, contact the registrar at telephone 656-3331.

Canyon Senior Citizens will conduct a fundraising garage sale August 15-16 in the basement of their new "home" at 1719 5th Avenue.

The sale will be conducted all day both days with proceeds to be used in a remodelling project at the new meeting site.

Donations of garage sale type items may be made to the Senior Citizens through Flossie Johnston, 655-3401, or E. R. Cleavinger, 655-4424, and all donations will be picked up prior to the sale.

Man Completes Survey Course

Robert A. Dorsey, 1717 6th Avenue, Canyon, has completed additional special education at Texas A&M University.

He was among 48 participants in one-week Surveying Technicians Short Course. He received course and continuing education certificates from TAMU.

Eighth in an annual series, the surveyors course is part of a broad spectrum of training and educational opportunities provided by Texas A&M. Persons from business, industry and the public services sector are regular beneficiaries.

The course was jointly conducted by the Texas Engineering Extension Service of TAMU and Texas Surveyors' Association.

ROTC Plans Welcome Fete

The West Texas State University ROTC department will welcome students to the fall semester with a free cookout Aug. 28 on the campus.

Capt. Russell Moore, assistant professor of military science, said the cookout, which will feature grilled hamburgers and cokes, will be from 5 to 7 p.m. on the lawn between the old administration and education buildings.

He said all university faculty, staff and students are invited.

In addition to the cookout, the department will stage rapelling demonstrations, firing of rifles at the indoor rifle range and static displays furnished by area reserve units.

Brockmans Return From Golden Jubilee

By REBA RAEF

MR. AND MRS. George Brockman have returned from Ft. Smith, Arkansas, where they attended the diamond and golden jubilee celebration for nine Sisters of the Order of St. Benedict.

Celebrating their diamond jubilee were Sister Pauline Dunn and Sister Theresa Kloos. Those celebrating their golden jubilee were Sister Jane Frances Brockman, she is George's sister, Sister De Chantal Hyland, Sister Tomasine Litch and Sister Genarose Huseman, who were all from Nazareth and Sister Florence Yutaman and Sister Amata Simmel.

The celebration began with Mass in the beautiful Chapel at St. Scholastica's Convent in Ft. Smith. At noon, a delicious meal was served to the jubilarians, their relatives and friends. The afternoon was spent visiting and at 5:30, supper was served to all.

Sister Jane Frances was the Mother Superior of the convent for sixteen years. Then she became president of St. Gertrude's Congregation, which consists of 17 religious communities in Canada, Mexico and the United States. At present, she is the Principal at St. Joseph's Childrens Home, in North Little Rock, Ark. All of her five brothers and their wives and her two sisters attended the celebration, as did the families of the other jubilarians.

Sister Genarose Huseman is a first cousin of Eddie Huseman, of Umbarger. George and Mary reported a most enjoyable time at the convent. * * *

VINCENT AND ROSE Mary Ramaekers went to Colorado Springs last Friday to visit Leroy and Colette Hoelting and their family. Rose Mary and Colette are sisters.

Vincent said that Colorado is as dry as we are here, and it was not as cool as usual. They returned Monday evening.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO our granddaughter, Debra Hartman, who was 13 last Monday. We had birthday supper with the Hartman's, followed by birthday cake and ice cream.

* * *

ON SUNDAY, AUGUST 3, St. Mary's C.Y.O. went to Panhandle to treat the children from the orphanage to their annual picnic. There were 30 C.Y.O. members from Umbarger and Sister Valentina and 27 children from the orphanage who went to the park in Panhandle and enjoyed a fried chicken dinner, complete with all the trimmings.

After dinner, the group played games. The adult sponsors from Umbarger who went along were Bert and Teeny Wilhelm, Leonard and Helen Batenhorst and Bernard and Barbara Hartman. * * *

DARLINE SUTHERS STOPPED in Umbarger Monday night, on her way home. She spent the night with Suzy and Marion Hicks and boys. Darline likes her new home at Maxwell and will join the school system there this Fall. She said it is cooler there than here and they could use a rain, too.

WE HAD COMPANY Sunday. Mike and Margaret Browder and Joe and Kevin came down from Amarillo.

In the afternoon, Tom and Kathy Callarman, Geoffrey and Lisa and Leonard and Helen Batenhorst and Brenda came to visit. Tom and Kathy will be leaving soon for Indiana, where Tom will attend Purdue University.

Envick Named Publication Editor

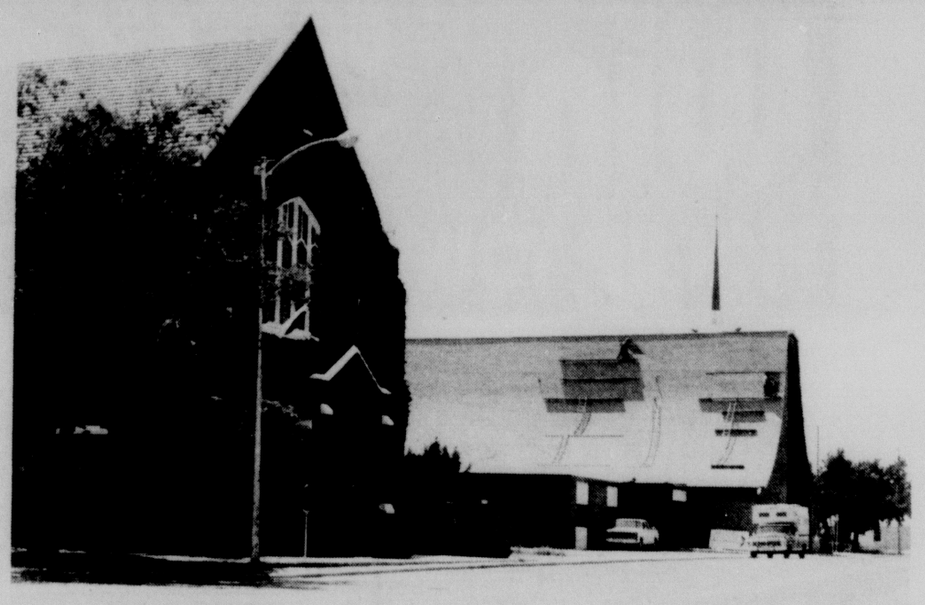
Dr. Donald Envick, head of the West Texas State University Department of Industrial Education, has recently been named editor of the "Journal of the Texas Industrial Arts Association."

The journal is the official quarterly publication of the Texas Industrial Arts Association.

The journal is affiliated with the Texas State Teachers Association, a department of the National Education Association. It solicits newsworthy articles of a professional nature from student clubs, school districts, colleges, universities, TIAA regions and interested individuals.

"The journal serves several important functions," Dr. Envick said. "One is providing colleges and universities an opportunity to announce curriculum changes and new programs of emphasis. It also presents papers of a technical or philosophical nature to state-wide and national audiences, Texas Industrial Teacher conference schedules and announcements of convention speakers, exhibits and displays to all I. A. teachers to plan and prepare for these events."

The Nebraska native earned his bachelor and master's degrees from Kearney State College. He went on to Texas A&M for his doctoral degree in industrial education and administration in 1968.



The ivy covered face of the First United Methodist Church in Canyon is pictured in contrast with the new $540,000 segment of the church as workmen near completion on the project. Rev. Bill Kent expects for the church to begin holding worship services in the new facilities by late September.

Three Endowments For City Student

Three Canyon newspaper carriers for the Amarillo News-Globe have been named to receive educational endowments in the 26th Annual scholarship and endowment program.

Receiving educational money to attend the accredited colleges of their choice in the United States from Canyon were Roy Davis, 16; Dan Harper, 16; and Rene West, 15. The endowments of $100 each are set aside in a trust fund for college expenses for the students.

Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Davis of 2429 15th Avenue, Canyon, is a student at Canyon High School and has been a newscarrier since 1972. This was his second year to receive an endowment. He was a junior varsity basketball player and member of the CHS chorale. He received a scholarship to the American Citizenship Seminar earlier.

Harper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T.J. Harper of 2106 3rd Avenue in Canyon and started as a newspaper carrier in May 1972. He participates in basketball, swimming and church work.

Miss West is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David West of 22 Hunsley Blvd. in Canyon and a sophomore student at Canyon High School. She has been a newspaper carrier since November 1971. This was her first year to receive an endowment in the program. She is a member of the National Junior Honor Society, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes for Girls and the CHS Mixed Choir. She played on the basketball team for three years and participated in track events. She has participated in University Interscholastic League piano and choir contests. She has earned the Lifesaving certificate at the YMCA and has been a part-time lifeguard for Hunsley Hills Pool.

Bourn Named Manager

Wes Bourn, 32, has been named manager of the multi-million dollar Consumers Fuel Association & Elevator here. He has been assistant manager.

The appointment was made by directors of the cooperative. Edgar Robinson is president.

Born and raised in Randall County, Bourn was a 1962 graduate of Canyon High School.

He joined Consumers Fuel about three years ago after nine years in various phases of agriculture work. For five years he was a fieldman for Taylor-Evans Farm Stores here, being assistant manager the last year.

Prior to that he worked for Randall County Feedyard and the SPF hog operation.

Consumers Fuel has two elevators in Canyon and one at Ralph's Switch with a total grain capacity of 1.8 million bushels, Bourn said.

The cooperative's facilities also include a store with farm supplies, fuel fertilizer and seed, an automotive service center and grain. It employs 26 persons.

Bourn said the co-op's yearly operations range from $4 million to $7 million, depending upon the area wheat crop.

He said the immediate goal of the co-op is to "get to the point where it can pay cash dividends and pay on some old preferred stock."

Consumers Fuel declared a cash dividend last year and expects another this year, he said.

Bourn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bourn of Canyon, and his wife, Linda, live at 2403 15th Ave. They have three sons, Edward, 10, Carl, 7, and Lynn, 6.

Mrs. Bourn is assistant cashier at the First National Bank in Canyon.

Rodeo To Kick Off Happy Days

By MARY NEAL HENRY

THE HAPPY DAYS Rodeo begins tonight at 8:00. Charlie Thompson, a top notch stock producer from Lubbock, will produce the three shows.

Bareback riding, bull riding, saddle bronc riding, calf roping, steer wrestling, single steer roping and barrel racing will be the featured events. Admission is only two dollars for adults and one dollar for children.

A trophy buckle will be presented first place winner in each event. Barrel racing will be a jackpot each night with a trophy buckle to the winner on all three nights.

Saturday is the big day for Happy Days. A parade at 9:30 kicks off events. Then bicycle races ($1.50 an entry to benefit the Richard SoRelle Memorial Fund) begin at 10:30 and kids games at 11:00. The Old Timers will be served free barbecue in the park beginning at 11:30. They will be seated and served by the Rainbow Girls and awards will be presented those old timers who have lived in the area the longest, traveled the fartherest to attend, and lived the longest.

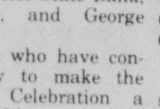
The public will be served barbecue for $1.50 a plate beginning at twelve noon.

Drawings will be held in the park about one o'clock for a $100 wardrobe and two ten speed bicycles. Happy Jaycee-Ettes are selling chances for one dollar donation on the wardrobe from Jean's of Canyon. Happy Volunteer Firemen are holding the drawing on the bicycles.

The beard contest will be judged at one o'clock during other park activities.

Horseshoe contests are an annual affair and are slated to begin at 1:30. A street square dance is scheduled for two o'clock.

The Historical Dedication will be at 2:30 and will be at the Swisher-Randall County lines on I-27. A windmill will commemorate the history of Old Happy which originally was located two miles east of the present site. The coming of the railroad in 1906 caused Happy to move to its present location. Harman-Toles #2 elevator, the concrete barrel type structure built by Italian POW's during World War II who were then stationed at the Hereford camp, will also have a marker declaring it a historical site. The POW's worked on the elevator five days a week and local people worked Saturday and Sundays. There was a shortage of labor during that time. These markers were purchased with the prize money won by Happy during the community projects of a few years ago.



The Art Show and Flea Market will be an all day affair. It begins at 9 a.m. and ends at 5 p.m. Happy Artist Studio sponsor this year in downtown Happy at 102 Mainstreet.

Saturday afternoon at 3, the Little Britches Rodeo will entertain you. Admission is free. This event always draws one of the biggest crowds of Happy Days. Youngsters enter at the park with either James Vick or Bill Pearson (or their wives) and by the time you get to the Happy Rodeo Arena, the show is all set up and ready to begin. Age groups are from 0 to 6 and from six to twelve. Little Britches is always a good show. And you surely can't beat that admission price.

Tiny Lynn will play for a western dance each night, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, in the Happy Jaycee Hall. Dance time is nine o'clock.

An open Steer Roping will be held Sunday afternoon, August 17th, in the Happy Rodeo Arena and sponsored by the Happy Jaycees. Ropers will be introduced at one o'clock and the roping is scheduled to begin at two. Contestants may enter Sunday. Entry fee is three head for $200.

Beef donors for the Happy Days Celebration are Lone Star Feeders, Swisher County Feed Lot, James Stockett and James Vick, (James Vick is owner and manager of Wayside Grain), Clyde Hancock and Simon Elliott, Cone and Randy Johnson and First State Bank, Foster Parker, and George Woods.

Other donors who have contributed money to make the Happy Days Celebration a success are Lloyd's Auto, Sexton's Grocery, Tirey Hardware, Consumers Supply, McFarland Fabrics, Happy Beauty Salon, Wallace Motor Company, Taylor-Evans, Corner Drug, Case Power and Equipment, Hardaway Butane, Happy Weekly, Jackie Pyle, City Tailor Shop, Helwig Lumber Company, Harman-Toles Elevator, First National Bank, Ervin's Barber Shop, Al's Restaurant, Neil's McCarley, Bill's Boot Shop, and Happy Rodeo Association.

THE LARRY TACKITTS of Bilt Rite Farms also entertained four buyers from Old Mexico last Friday. The pigs will be shipped to Tetatitlan, Jalisco and will also go to the Guadalajara area.

It is indeed a small world. Last March in Austin, Texas, Danny Presnall of Texas Agriculture Products was telling me that he had met a friend of mine. That friend was Camma Lou Tackitt. (Now Danny knows I advertise beef and so this friendship was somewhat amusing to him anyway).

In promoting exports of Texas Products, Danny had accompanied some American neighbors to Bilt Rite Farms to buy pigs. He was impressed with Camma Lou as everyone is who knows her. I told Danny that if he had more such hostesses in America, he would have less trouble developing world markets.

By the way, Jeff Maynard had on a baseball uniform that I liked. On the back it said, "Eat More Beef" and under that was his number, ½.

Time For Kids To Catch The Bus

By DORIS McKEE

ONE MORE WEEK until it will be time to get up early and see that those kids are ready to "catch the bus on time." Sure is going to change my routine and probably a lot of yours.

* * *

OUR GARDENS OUT here are going full blast now and everyone is staying very busy picking, canning, freezing, watering and of course eating. Things sure are better fresh, when you can get them.

These nice sunny warm days have put a lot of traffic in the swimming pool. Most everyone out here enjoys the pool very much.

We certainly enjoyed having Sherry and Kellie Buckalew spend last week with us. LaVera, Rhnee, Bryan and John came up Sunday morning.

I had a picnic lunch ready and Tod, DeAnn and I took all of them to Palo Duro Canyon for the day.

LaVera and her kids had never been before and they all really had a good time.

When they were ready to leave for Lubbock, I packed DeAnn off with them. She is going to spend a week or two visiting Mamau Weaver and also Grandmaw and Grandpaw McKee.

* * *

ALICE, DANNY AND Annette Pope of 222 La Fiesta had an overnight visit from Alice's folks last Wednesday.

* * *

ALBERT, KATIE, DAVIA and Kathie Rinne had guests this past week. Kenneth, Pat, Kim and Rayanna Dout of Cleburne, Tex. spent their weeks vacation visiting between the Rinne household and Kenneth's folks who live in Amarillo.

Katie said they helped her a lot with her canning. They picked and fixed beans and also worked hard at putting 10 dozen ears of sweet corn in the freezer.

Last Sunday Albert, Katie, Pat and Kenneth left early and drove over to Raton to spend an enjoyable day at the Horseraces.

On Friday Chris joined his folks at the Rinne's He had been visiting in Dalhart, I believe.

Friday night everyone went out for a pizza supper in honor of Davia's birthday. Happy Birthday, Davia and many more.

I understand she is to have another party sometime this week, so we'll get the details on it later. Katie said all in all they really did enjoy having the Dout family here and did a lot of good visiting.

* * *

WE WISH TO extend our sympathy to Mrs. Ruby (Granny) Huddleston, who along with Jack and Vera went to Baytown last week to attend the funeral services of R. L. Huddleston. R.L. was a brother of Granny's late husband.

* * *

GUESS WHO'S HOME? Jon, Diana and Christy Hoffman made a trip to Kiowa, Kan. this weekend to Jon's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoffman, to bring their son, Marty, back home.

Marty spent his entire summer in Kansas this year. He worked most of the time at his other grandparents dairy farm, Carlos and Louise Cantrell of Elsmore. Jon and Diana also went to Harper to visit Diana's grandmother, Faye Diehl.

Oh yes, we want to wish Diana a Happy Birthday. She turned ? on Tuesday Aug. 12. Don't know if she'd want me to tell how old she is, but I'll say this much, she is past 21.

RAYLENE QUALLS CALLED one afternoon to tell me she had had a visit from her sister, Linda, and her family Jim, Darrin and Bryn Lawrence of Spearman.

Also Paul, Sr., brother Jackie Qualls of Borger, came by last Wednesday for a short visit. Seems Paul Sr. had spent ten days recently working in Wichita Falls.

* * *

TALKED WITH FAYE Conner this week and her mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Keese of Mason, Tex. came last Thursday and brought Rene and Diane home. The girls had spent several weeks down there and now Mr. and Mrs. Keese will visit here for awhile.

On Sunday Faye, Felton and girls, took Mr. and Mrs. Keese to Palo Duro Canyon. They had a real enjoyable time. This is Mr. and Mrs. Keese's first visit to this part of Texas.

I also learned that Faye, Felton and girls will leave us Friday, August 15, as they are moving to Groom, Tex.

* * *

I CALLED PAT Reed a few days back and she was feeling better, so I rushed down to get all the low down on her and Tex's recent two week vacation.

She had kept a day to day diary on all their doings. The vacation started on Saturday, July 5th. After several cups of coffee and several cigarettes, Pat checked and locked the suitcases, took Pepper to the kennels and they went to the West's place.

Pat and Tex were so anxious that they and the West's arrived at the airport at 11:00 a.m., a mite early since they didn't even get to board until 1:00 p.m. They arrived in Chicago at 4:00 p.m., had a 2¾ hr. layover there. They left Chicago at 6:45 p.m., final destination Boston.

Seems the entire tribe (that's what Pat calls her family) was at Logan Airport to meet them; 4 children and 5 grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. John Repecko, Jay and Kellie; Mrs. Sandra Pellerin and Kim, Mrs. Ruth Murray and Michelle also friend, Frank Trainer and Clayton (Skip) Bowes and his fiance Donna Hamel.

They had their first get together at Sandra's where Madelyn Turner joined them. On Sunday, July 6th everyone attended an all day cookout and pool party at Madelyn's. Newcomers were Eddy Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Turner.

On Monday July 7, Pat, her three daughters and three granddaughters went downtown shopping. All the children came to Sandra's for supper and Madelyn came later to visit. Ruth brought Linda Robinson and her daughter Renny over to Sandra's for a visit.

Tuesday, July 8, Cheri picked up Pat and Tex at 10:30 a.m. They stopped at the post office and then a bakery where Pat ordered a cake for Skip's and Donna's wedding.

Ruth later took Tex to Everett, Mass. to see his daughter Donna, husband Jim and 2 grandsons, Jamie and Todd and that evening attended a softball game.

Wednesday July 9, Pat had coffee with Sandra before going to North East Memorial where she is training to be an x-ray technician. Today was the day to move over to daughter, Cheri's. Ruth brought Donna, Jamie and Todd Huntsman (Tex's daughter and kids) for a visit. In the evening Pat, Cheri, Sandra and Ruth went shopping and left the kids with Tex and John.

Thursday, July 10, Cheri and Pat went to town on some errands. Pat cashed in all her travelers checks. Said she really had a hassle to cash them in businesses.

That evening Pat and Tex along with the family went to the Hill Top Steak House where Pat ordered her favorite lobster pie.

Saturday, July 12, it was raining and it was Skip and Donna's wedding day, too. Pat and Tex went with Skip to pick up Donna and while there met her family, Chet and Lillian Hamel, her sisters, Joyce, Karen and Rose, and brother-in-law, Steve. The wedding took place in Seabrook, N.H. and the reception was at Madelyn Turner's home.

Sunday, July 13, was time to move again. Ruth and Frank picked Pat and Tex up and drove them to Danville, N.H. to visit Leo and Mina Lavallie. They had a cookout supper and nice visit with the Lavallie's son, Robert and family.

Pat and Tex were put up in the Lavallie's travel trailer, which Pat named "Lavallie's Motel."

After a couple of days rest they went to Tewksburg for dinner at Jade East (Chinese Food) and after the meal they came back to play several games of cribbage with Mina and Pat losing them all.

Skip and Donna picked Pat and Tex up July 16 and drove them to Ruth's house in Revere, Mass. At 6:30 Ruth, Michille, Pat and Tex went on to Everett where Donna (Tex's daughter) served a turkey dinner.

Ruth fixed supper on Thursday, July 17 and the group ate outside with Madelyn, Vic, Sandra, Donna, Jim, Cheri, Ruth, Clayton, Pat, Skip, Donna, Tex and Pat. And all the grandkids, Jay, Kellie, Kim, Michelle, Jamie and Todd present.

The women went shopping on Friday and Pat stopped by the cemetery to place a rose on her mother's grave. They had supper at Koolans and the next day was time for the return trip to Siesta.

Before leaving Ruth and Pat shopped for Italian cold cuts to bring home and Cheri treated the group to a backyard picnic.

After a family farewell at the airport, they boarded for the return flight to Amarillo and were met here by Pearl and Dale West. They stopped by for Pepper at the kennel and it was good to be back home.

TALKED TO EUNICE Rinehart on Monday. She and Barney had been to Hobbs, N.M. to visit Barney's sister, Vera Tate last week. Friday night Gladys (Eunice's sister) and Guinn Davenport of Vernon spent the night at Rinehart's. They were on their way to a reunion in Colorado and will be back to visit Eunice and Barney later this week. On Sunday Bobby and Jo, also Charlotte and Tom came out for a visit with Eunice and Barney.

Eunice said that on July 26th, she and Faye Risner took the bus trip to Raton and spent the day enjoying the horseraces. They left Amarillo at 8:30 a.m. and returned at midnight.

CALLED SHARON JONES Monday. Seems, son Shannon had a 12 birthday on July 25th. He and his family celebrated with a barbecue and guest including, Sharon's folks, Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Newman of Hereford, Pat and Debbie Newman of Amarillo, and Allan Newman and family of Canyon. A belated Happy Birthday, Shannon.

Weekend before last Sharon, James and kids went to Ute Lake. Sharon's folks, Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Newman were there also. Sharon said they did a lot of water skiing. This past weekend Sharon, James and kids went to Hereford to visit James' folks, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Jones. Seems Randy and Shannon are spending this week with their grandparents.

We do want to express our sympathy to James and Sharon due to the death of James' uncle, Roy Barnett. The Jones went to Wolf City, Tex. last week to attend the funeral.

THINGS ARE BEGINNING to pop as school nears. Tod is having to go each afternoon for football practice already.

He will play on the 6th grade team. We sure are looking forward to a good time and hopefully a winning team.

With or without pads, football remains a contact sport.

Pass defense . . . . a key to Eagle success in 1975.

EAGLE FOOTBALL IS HERE

Agility drills have been stressed during the first three days of non-contact workouts. The team will suit out in full pads tomorrow.

The Canyon High School Eagles began two-a-day workouts Monday in preparation for the season opener against Lubbock Monterey on Thursday, Sept. 4 at Lubbock.

New head coach and athletic director Deane Wright welcomed 65 players Monday as the gridders donned shorts and T-shirts for the first three days of practice. The team will put on full battle gear tomorrow.

According to Wright, the team spirit is high and the players are working hard. The head coach foresees a good season for the Eagles.

Along with Wright, several other coaches are new to Canyon.

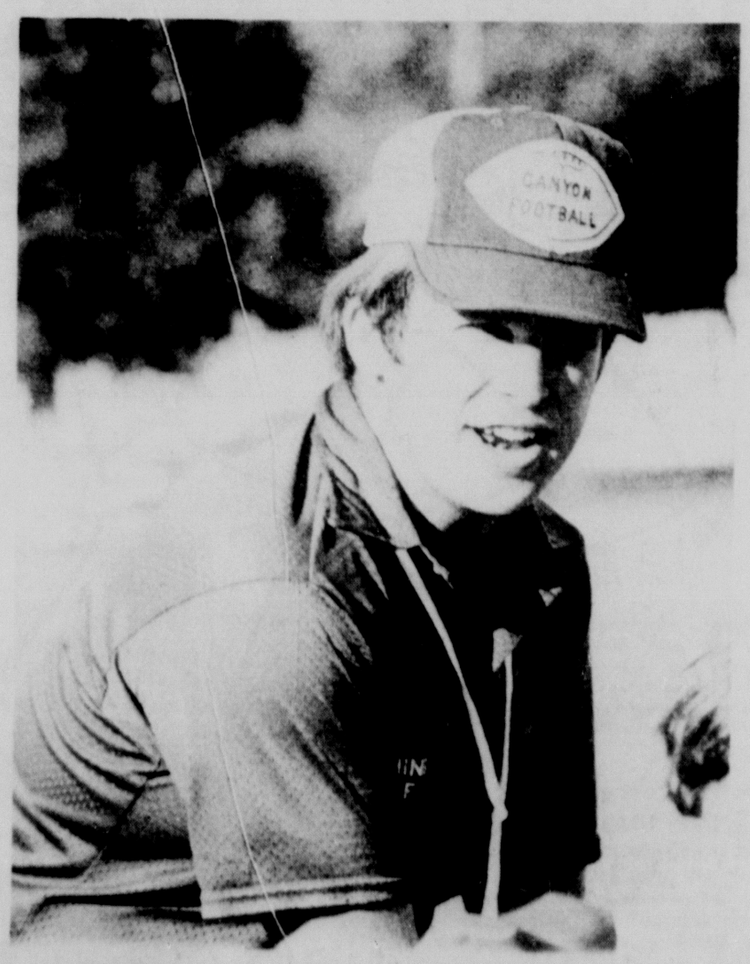
Alton Fields, new defensive coordinator, came to Canyon with Wright from Dimmitt. James Ray Hyatt will be responsible for the defensive and offensive backfields. Hyatt came from Amarillo Tascosa. Michael Auld returns from last year's staff as line coach. Another addition to the high school staff is Richard Shade who will be coaching the junior varsity and also will be assistant boy's basketball coach.

The Eagles will encounter stiff competition in pre-conference play. The first six games are against class 4A schools, two of which are picked to take their district titles.

Last year the Eagles faced the same schedule and had to limp their way to the 1-AAA district championship. Several 1974 Eagles were injured and members of the junior varsity had to be called up as replacements. As a result, the 1975 squad gained valuable experience which will be put to use this season.

New head coach and athletic director Deane Wright offers a few words of encouragement to the 65 CHS players going through two practices a day.

Story and Photos by BEELEE GOODWIN



Defensive coordinator Alton Fields isn't new to coach Wright's brand of football. Fields was under Wright last year at Dimmitt where the two put together a 9-1 season.

Organization: One Of Life's Problems

By KAROLYN FARMER

I DON'T KNOW about you, but I've decided that one of the biggest problems in life is just getting my own life organized. So I make lists — of everything.

Of course every mother is familiar with the old grocery list. Yesterday I walked into the store with a list that said, "Milk, bread, dog food," and I walked out followed by a boy pushing a cart loaded with seven sacks of groceries.

One of the hard parts about making a list is finding something to write it on. So far my record is listing 28 items on the inside of an old matchbook cover.

Unfortunately, while patting myself on the back for being so efficient, the thought occurred to me — don't ships also list just before they sink?

AT THE VERY top of our list of important events this week is school registration on Monday, August 18th. Besides bringing your child and all the papers you'll need to get him or her into school this year, I hope you'll also bring a couple of extra dollars so you can join the Gene Howe PTA. Dues this year are still just one dollar per person.

Registration Day please be sure to sign up for the Falcon Fan Club also. As most of you already know, the Fan Club is composed of parents who would like to be more involved in the activities and learning experiences of their children. It's really a great opportunity for parents to work with the teachers at Gene Howe in many areas.

Sherrie Cates, who is First Vice President of PTA this year, will be heading up the Falcon Fan Club organization.

MRS. LARRY (SHEILA) Davis will be one of the new teachers this year at Gene Howe. She will be teaching one of the first grade classes. Sheila formerly taught a third grade class at Olsen Park School in Amarillo for seven years.

She and her family then moved to Lubbock where she taught Title 1 Reading for second through sixth grades. The Davises then moved to Pampa where Sheila taught seventh grade reading for one year.

Sheila attended both Texas Tech and West Texas State Universities. She says her hobbies include all kinds of sports, sewing and decorative painting.

Larry Davis, who is a graduate of WT, will be teaching math at Canyon Junior High beginning this fall.

Sheila and Larry have two daughters. Lici is two years old and Deon is six years old and will be in the first grade this year.

* * *

MRS. RONNIE (JOHNNIE) Gordon has also been signed to teach at Gene Howe and will have one of the third grade classes.

Johnnie and her family have lived in Canyon for the past ten years, where she has done substitute teaching and has worked both as an aide and a homebound teacher.

She received a very special honor this past year by being selected as the Outstanding State Junior Clubwoman for Texas through her work with the Heritage Woman's Club of Canyon.

Ronnie Gordon teaches sixth grade at Rex Reeves School.

THERE HAVE BEEN several inquiries about the need for babysitters for kindergarten children during either the morning or the afternoon when the children aren't in school.

They then drove on to Leesville, La. and Toledo Bend, where the kids water skiied and the whole family enjoyed a lot of boat riding and relaxing in the sun. Their trip also included a few days at Possum Kingdom.

VonDEAN McGREGOR HAS been busy this summer helping to compile and coordinate curriculum guides to be used at Gene Howe and Rex Reeves. The guides were prepared by the teachers for use in art, science, music, language arts and library studies.

VonDean says that they are now printed and bound and will be a great asset to the teachers in working with the children on an individual basis as they progress through each grade level.

THE GENE HOWE PTA Board met for their first official business meeting of the year on Monday, August 11 at the school. Among the items discussed were the dates for the PTA meetings and the Chili Supper, staff and room changes for this coming year and the need for and ways of acquiring more playground equipment.

The members of the board also discussed the need to better inform the PTA members of what is happening both at our school and in our state. Plans were made to publish a newsletter which will be sent to all of our parents each month. Heading this project will be Farris Ann Morrison and Doris McKee.

PAT AND JAN Meier, Don and Cassie have had a busy and exciting summer. They recently took a "Texas" trip covering many parts of our state. Besides stopping at Six Flags, the Meiers also went to Houston where they especially enjoyed seeing the NASA Space Center.

While in Houston the Meiers visited with Jan's sister, Nancy Meier, who is a nurse for Dr. Denton Cooley, the famous heart specialist.

For Pat's birthday Nancy presented her with a copy of the doctor's biography, "Cooley" which had been autographed by Dr. Cooley.

The Meiers spent one night of their vacation with Pam and Connie Martin in their lake home at Marble Falls. Pat and Jan and children also enjoyed visiting the State Capitol and the LBJ Library in Austin.

In San Antonio the Meiers spent several hours attending the Folk Life Festival. Pat said the festival was just like a big fair with booths and exhibits representing many ethnic groups found in Texas. They enjoyed the German band and dancing as well as the Mexican exhibit. Pat told me she really had a hard time getting Jan away from the Lebanese exhibit which featured a belly dancer.

Highlights of the trip for Jan (other than the belly dancer) were visiting with his fraternity "son" whom he hadn't seen in 12 years, and getting to eat lots of German food when they stopped in Fredericksburg.

Pat said Don's favorite part of the trip was visiting NASA — not because the space center was so fascinating, but because he caught a tree frog while they were there. That same day Don also caught a snail and a hermit crab. (And for a third grade boy, that's really excitement!).

Jan also spent 10 days this summer running a combine on his parents' farm in Sidney, Neb. Pat tells me that the wheat crop in that area has really been fantastic this year and could be the best one they've had.

While Jan was harvesting wheat, Pat and the kids visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Price in Eagle, Colo.

GAY AND HOWARD Cochran and Howie joined Laura in Oklahoma last week to spend a few days with relatives there. Laura had been in Oklahoma the week before attending the Falls Creek Baptist Camp.

* * *

J.T. AND JO Ann Jolley celebrated their 15th wedding anniversary this summer on June 24th, and they took a trip this past week to Mexico in honor of the occasion.

The Jolleys flew to Mexico City where they spent two days sightseeing and shopping. They then went on to a hacienda outside of Mexico City. The hacienda was built in the 15th Century by Cortez and has been restored into a resort hotel.

J.T. and Jo Ann spent the next four days of their trip in sunny Acapulco. While in Mexico Jo Ann purchased a custom made embroidered skirt for herself. They also bought hats and puppets to bring home to Todd, Delia and Paul.

Earlier in the summer Jo Ann and the children, along with Jo Ann's mother, spent several days in Colorado visiting the Garden of the Gods, Pikes Peak and several other sights there.

* * *

CONNIE AND PAM Martin, Pike and Paige, have been spending all their spare moments at their lake home in Marble Falls, which is 40 miles from Austin. Pam said it's really a beautiful area and has great fishing, which they really enjoy.

Connie, who is the assistant principal at Amarillo High School, has also been busy this summer taking law courses at WT.

* * *

IT CERTAINLY WAS quiet around our house this week-end. Kyle took our boys, Kent and Carl, along with Jay Tipps, and all of their motorcycles, to spend a few days at a friend's cabin near Tres Ritos, N.M. They all had a great time riding through (and into) the mountains and exploring the back woods.

* * *

KENT FARMER IS the special birthday boy for this week at our home. But I guess I can't call him a boy anymore since he's now 13 years old and is officially a teenager. Kent celebrated his 13th birthday on Tuesday, Aug. 12.

* * *

WELL, I'VE COME to the end of my list of things to write about this week. Now I've got to go back to the store and get the things I forgot to get yesterday. Now what did I do with that matchbook cover? ? ?

I'LL BE SEEING most of you at school next week — right ? ? ?

TEXAS TALK

By Tom Lytle

Protein potency is one of the terms being used to describe the positive aspects of beef promoters arguments supporting the favorable factors of beef protein versus plant protein. The beef backer with one of the most impressive data accumulations to support the meat producers position is Dr. Bruce Taylor, an animal nutritionist at Arizona University. Dr. Taylor says one of the most important aspects of judging protein is an evaluation of the amount of protein actually utilized by the body compared to the amount of intake. Using a scale with egg protein rated at 100, Dr. Taylor says beef would rate at 80 and corn and milo at 56. Citing statistics based on feeding out a 650 pound steer with a ton of grain, Dr. Taylor says the human body would actually utilize exactly the same weight of protein whether consuming the 160 pounds of protein in the feed or the 112 pounds in the finished steer. His final conclusion ... a choice between corn and milo or beef.

Parenthood Planning Services Give Health Care Information

Mildred Blake

Mildred Blake, housewife, mother and university student, is the new outreach worker for the Randall County Planned Parenthood office.

The agency is now located in room 205 of the Courthouse.

The non-profit organization, funded through federal money and private contributions, offers free and confidential services to persons of all ages.

"Information and education is one of our main functions," says Mrs. Harold Stuart, health educator in the Amarillo office of Planned Parenthood which supervises the program in 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle.

"It is not just sex education we are into but total health care," she adds. "We have an informative program which we present to any group desiring it."

Planned parenthood is not something new, Mrs. Blake says. The concept was pursued more than 60 years ago in New York City.

The real purpose of planned parenthood is to try to get parents to space their children," Mrs. Blake says. "All we do is counsel."

Planned Parenthood services are available to the single woman or man as well as to married persons.

"In the case of married couples, we try to encourage both to come in," Mrs. Blake says. "People are treated with respect, not with judgment."

Mrs. Stuart adds, "The majority of our patients are of low income or fixed income, like students. Doctors will send their patients to Planned Parenthood for information when they are too busy to undertake such consultation."

Among the free services provided by Planned Parenthood are Pap and pelvic examinations, veneral disease testing, pregnancy testing, contraceptives, breast examination, blood pressure and weight, urinalysis, problem pregnancy and fertility counseling, tuberculosis and anemia testing.

"People are being more open today on birth control and sex," Mrs. Blake says. "We want people to feel free to call us. If a person cannot come to our office, we will go to the home."

On the subject of abortion, Mrs. Blake says Planned Parenthood's position is that "no one should have to make that decision. That is why we recommend birth control. We tell them what the options are — and they make their own choice."

Mrs. Blake is the wife of S.W. Blake, a former Pentecostal minister and now a consultant to Knapp Shoe Co. They have two sons, Steve, 25, and Paul, 23, and a daughter, Susan, 16.

She is studying social work and psychology at West Texas State University.

The Randall County Planned Parenthood has an 18-member patient advisory board assisting the program. Office hours are 11:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.
